MT. JULIET - The Tennessee Heat will begin a softball program for home-schooled student athletes, grades 8-12, for varsity and junior varsity in the spring 2018 season. Up to 20 players will be selected for the first home-school softball team in Middle Tennessee. The Tennessee Heat is an athletic organization with home-schooled athletes in Middle Tennessee.

Tryouts for the first Tennessee Heat softball team will be:

- Saturday, Jan. 6th - 10 a.m. to 12 p.m.
- Tuesday, Jan. 9th - 5 to 7 p.m.
- Saturday, Jan. 13th - 10 a.m. to 12 p.m.

How You Can Help!

This is a first-year, upstart program. Financial donations are beneficial to the team, and Tennessee Heat is a 501(c)3

Tryouts will be held at Cedar Creek Sports Center Indoor Facility | 10070 Lebanon Rd. | Mt. Juliet TN 37122

Heat values include: Love, Hope, Discipline, Identity, Accountability, Leadership, Teamwork, Excellence, Integrity, Humility, Courage, and Respect.

About the Coach:

Duane Biggs returns to the Tennessee Heat after serving as the head coach of Heat baseball from 2014-15, with seven years of high school head coaching experience (two years public school, five years home school). Duane relocated to Mississippi and returned to Tennessee in 2017, and works as a project manager for Design Construction in Portland. He has 15 years of pastoral ministry experience and brings a resume of values and vision for Christian leadership to the Heat athletic programs. He and his wife Beth have three children.
